Head's Letter

Hello everyone.

I hope that you have all had a lovely week. We certainly have here. The highlight of the week was our annual Harvest Festival service in the church. It was wonderful to have all the children together in our church thanking God for his provision. Thank you so much for your generous donations, they will certainly make a huge difference to Woking Food Bank.

Apologies that this time we were unable to accommodate families. We were unfortunately limited on space due to the coffee shop being open on a Friday. In future, we shall make sure that we arrange our celebrations on days when we can have access to the hall too, and will certainly be looking forward to seeing you at our Christmas celebrations.

On Monday, I was positively petrified in assembly, when I found myself up against a frightening band of Year 3 Romans and Celts! Thankfully, they weren't looking for me, so I was able to carry on assembly as normal! I know that they all had a fantastic day which culminated in a battle outside. Thank you so much to parents for providing such wonderful costumes.

We are learning the story of Joseph during our assembly times and what it is to be part of a family. Joseph and his brothers certainly had some tricky times as all families do. However, I can say that our community here at Pyrford is really one to celebrate. We learn how to love and care for each other and navigate through the more challenging times. I am most definitely happy to be part of this special family.

Have a lovely weekend.

A huge thank you to all the committee for their hard work and to parents who supported the event.

This week's book winners

Y3 Romans & Celts

Year 3 have been learning all about the Romans and Celts. Last week we visited Butser Ancient Farm where we experienced an Iron Age roundhouse and a Roman villa. We took part in a range of activities including spinning wool, designing mosaics and making jewellery out of wire. This week we had fun dressing up and re-enacting a battle. During the day we made clay pots, used wool to weave cloth, made catapults and composed a musical mosaic!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Year 3 have played a loop game where they matched a person's name to their achievement.

I have...	Who has...?
Barack Obama	The black woman who refused to give up her seat on a bus for a white person.

I have...	Who has...?
Rosa Parks	The first black male newsreader in the UK in 1973.

Year 4 have learnt about Rosa Parks. They discussed how brave she was to stand up for something that she believed strongly about and they wished they could say thank you to her.

★ Thank you Rosa Parks
for Standing up for black People. !! ★

Thank you Rosa Parks for getting Staying on the Bus!
+ Rosa Parks
Thank you!

Thank you Rosa Parks for Sacrificing your self by going in Jail So black and white people can be UNITED!!!

Clubs

Cookery Club are enjoying their sessions, making some delicious recipes. Thank you to Mrs Leach and Mrs Haiden for volunteering to run the club. We were particularly grateful when Mrs Haiden went home and re-created the recipe for some of us to sample THANK YOU!

NETBALL CLUB

Please note that earrings cannot be worn at Netball Club and if they are not removed, children will not be allowed to play.

We need your help!

Alongside the clubs we currently offer we like to be able to provide other activities that are free of charge to help families, especially in the current climate.

With this in mind we are looking for volunteers who can spare an hour or so each week to help run football, running club, netball etc.

If you can help please do get in touch. I would love to hear from you.

Many Thanks

GOLDEN BOOK

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GOLDEN BOOK WINNERS THIS WEEK

N SQUIRRELS Clara Berrange. Clara loves playing outside and shows good coordination as she climbs and balances. Clara persevered when she tried to use the stilts for the first time and kept trying until she could use them. Well done Clara!	YEAR 3 CELTS The Celtic costumes and the war paint made the children look like real Celtic warriors charging into battle. They also made clay thumb pots and had a go at weaving wool the way Celts would have done.
R BEECH Emily Organ. Last week Reception went to visit the church. Emily drew a lovely picture showing all the things she saw and talked happily about her picture.	4 ALDER Mason Moser for working very hard on his factual writing about wolves and for making his sentences even more interesting with brilliant vocabulary. His writing is also neat and joined. An excellent effort Mason!
R HAZEL Dominic Calafatis for doing some amazing counting. He was able to tell me what was more than or fewer than. He then helped me to make 1 group the same as another and knew exactly what to do to solve the challenge. Well done Dominic!	4 LARCH Zaynab Hussain for her excellent report about wolves. You used a variety of sentence starters, subheadings and punctuation. I was really impressed with your work!
1 OAK Skye Highton for really impressing us this week in gymnastics. She was able to link together the shapes, actions and jumps we have been learning and performed beautifully. & Théo Lant for a wonderful counting book. Théo wrote all the numerals and number words to 10!	5 ROWAN Eliana Hutchinson for her fantastic story map of our new book Ice Palace. She has remembered all the key points of the story and added in adjectives to describe the character's feelings at each point. Well done!
1 PINE Finley Lamb for being a great mathematician! He loves to do the independent maths jobs in the classroom. Last week we were recognising the numbers 1-10 written in words. He made a 'number book' with a page for each number with the numeral, word and a picture representation. Well done Finley.	5 WILLOW Bella Tubasei for her excellent story map that she created in English. She has carefully thought about the design of her map to show the key events that took place through our new book Ice Palace. I love the detail and her amazing artistic ability has shone through! Well done.
2 CEDAR Noah Westwood. Year 2 have been learning all about the life cycles of animals. Noah compared the different life cycles we have learned about with lovely description. Well done Noah!	6 HOLLY Annie Whyman-Taylor for her impressive story setting piece of work this week. She has used some great vocabulary and made her sentences interesting to read with lots of description so that the reader can imagine the character, Ted, on his journey. Excellent variety of punctuation too, Annie. Fabulous writing - well done!
2 HAWTHORN Toby Brewster. In Maths, we have been learning our number bonds to 10. I was impressed with how neatly Toby presented his work and how he was able to explain his thinking. Well done Toby!	6 LAUREL Otto Clare-Campbell for impressing me with his fabulous writing in English. The task was to write a poem about the streets of London. Otto has used figurative language to capture the sights, smells and sounds of London very effectively. Well done Otto, keep up the great work!
YEAR 3 ROMANS The Roman costumes were superb and the children learnt how to form a tortoise formation to go into battle. Inspired by the mosaics we saw at Butser Ancient Farm the children also composed a musical mosaic!

Good Morning London.

Big Ben sung,
12, chime, 12 chime,
What a busy day!

The Cafe Called her name
Number 1, yum, Number 2, yum,
What a scrumptious meal!

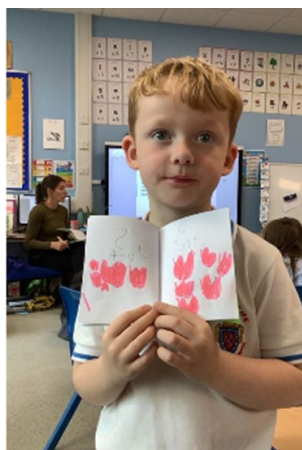

The Wind howled,
Psst, swoosh, psst, swoosh,
What a windy day!

The tube ran,
Vroom, bang, vroom, bang
What a crowded ride!

In the morning i saw the city wake,
But now it's falling back, Asleep.

Story Setting

Slowly and carefully, Ted dialled the phone number.

"Hello, Frontline Security," answered a lady with a high-pitched voice, "can I help you?"

"Hello," said Ted, feeling quite intense.

"Can I help you?" she asked, getting impatient. Ted granted, not knowing what to say.

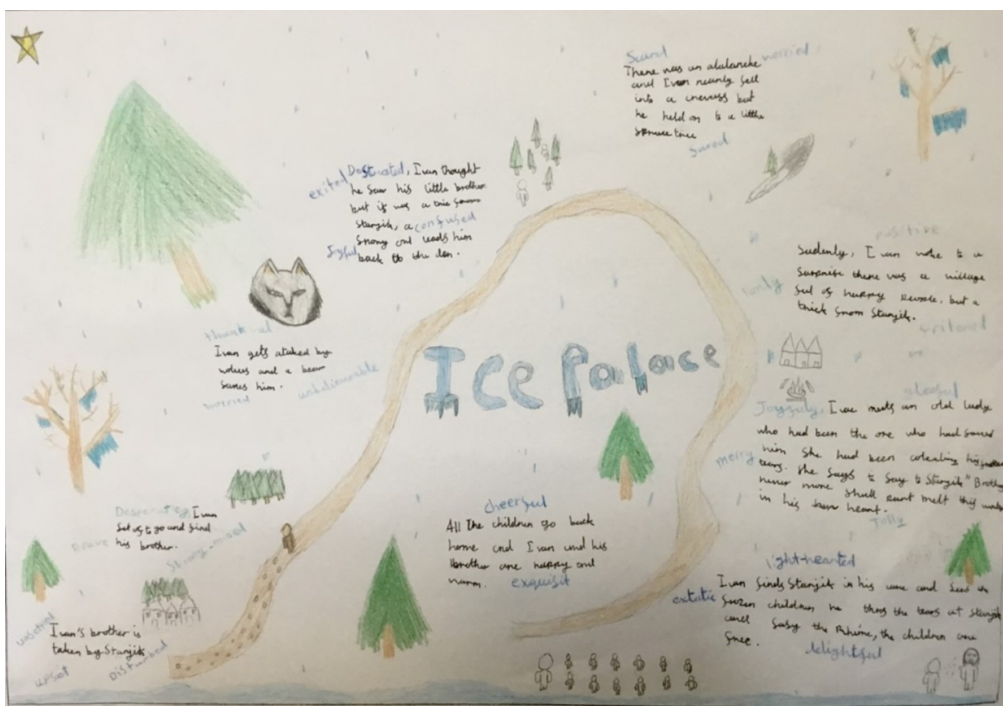

"You're just a kid, ain't ya," she giggled.

"I'm looking for a man with a stubbly chin," Ted blurted out. The lady sighed and thought for a few minutes.

"He is at the ~~Abford Motorcycle Race~~ in motorcycle race in Earls Court, like I said earlier to the girl," she replied. Ted hung up.

Many times, Ted has had second thoughts, but this time he really wished that he hadn't left home - it was freezing! There were colossal, crimson buses loudly driving down the bustling streets. Traffic lights were flashing every instant - there were people barging into him. The smell of cigarettes disgusted his nostrils; the blustery wind was whispering in his ear, begging him to go home.

As to Ted ~~down~~ descended to the Underground, which was right under the road, the loud noises from above drained out of his ears, like flour in a sieve. Ted could hear trains screeching as they stop to release passengers. His hand started to shake itself out. If they never found out what to, if Aunt Gloria never went to New York, if they never found Salim, then Aunt Gloria would be heartbroken. The banister leading to the Underground was covered in ancient chewing gum.
