Wali: Write a letter to a friend explaining the Holy Trinity.

Dear Marina

I am writing this letter to inform you about the Holy Trinity. The Holy Trinity is all three gods in one:

- Father (God)
- the son (Jesus)
- the Holy Spirit.

God

God the father created this universe and everything in it. he is also called All Seeing eye, Provider, Lord, Ruler, Protector and J.

Jesus

Jesus Shows the human loving side of God. Jesus is also called Friend, crown of thorns, Emmanuel, Cross, Lamb of God and King of Jews.

Holy Spirit:

The Holy Spirit is the giver of life. The Holy Spirit lives inside the people that believe in God. The Holy Spirit can also be called: Flame, Wind, Thunder and Lightning, Dove and Alpha and Omega.

Head's Letter

Hello everyone.

Firstly, a huge thank you to the PTA and all of you who came and supported the Autumn Fair. It was a huge success and the money raised will really benefit the children, particularly during these financially difficult times.

At the end of assembly on Monday, Mrs Goree came in and drew the first raffle to win a book from our new 'Book Vending Machine'. This was a highly charged time for the children, full of great excitement. Four children won a new book and got to put their token into the machine to get it. What was so lovely to see was how happy the other children were for the winners, as they clapped and cheered them. Please keep hearing your children read. If they read four times a week, they will get a raffle ticket for the draw on a Monday.

This week, two year groups have been out on trips to enhance and solidify their learning in the classroom. Reception walked across to the church, where they were met by Suzanne, who told them all about what a church is and why people go there. The children looked around and then sang songs and played instruments. They had a really fantastic time. It was so lovely to see them walking past the office so beautifully, ready to go on their adventure.

On Wednesday, Year 3 went to Butser Ancient Farm in Hampshire. Of course, the most exciting part of any school trip is going on the coach! When the children arrived, as well as exploring the farm, they were involved in a range of exciting opportunities, such as spinning yarn and jewellery making. I saw some lovely examples of rings that had been made and a great time was had by all.

Thank you to the teachers for arranging the trips and to those volunteers that came and helped.

Have a lovely weekend.

Rachel Clement

GOLDEN BOOK

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GOLDEN BOOK WINNERS THIS WEEK

N SQUIRRELS Talia Hutchinson for settling brilliantly at Squirrels. She walks happily through the door every morning, puts her belongings away and quickly finds something to do. Talia is always busy and talks to those around her about what she is doing. Well done Talia!	3 JUNIPER Imogen Bulmer for writing a fantastic action story inspired by Anthony Browne's book The Tunnel. Her exciting sentences are beautifully presented and include well-chosen vocabulary and adverbs. Great work Imogen!
R BEECH Not awarded this week.	3 MAPLE Marianna Franco Turanska. In English we have written an exciting action story based on The Tunnel. Marianna listened carefully and included interesting adverbs in her writing. She also presented her work neatly and set it out in paragraphs. Keep up the good work Marianna.
R HAZEL Coralie Gray. Coralie independently sorted the buttons by size. She confidently explained that she'd sorted them by size - small, medium and large and was very proud of the fact that she'd sorted each and every button on the table.	4 ALDER Thea Pitts for making an excellent start to Year 4. She is trying incredibly hard in all the lessons, is listening carefully and is being very helpful around the classroom. We are very proud of you Thea!
1 OAK Not awarded this week.	4 LARCH Oliver Pearson for his excellent re-tell of the Wolves story. I particularly enjoyed reading the alternative ending that you created. Well done for including fronted adverbials and impressive vocabulary. I'm proud of you!
1 PINE Nuriyah Bhura. We have been learning about our bodies and our 5 senses. Nuriyah was a great scientist and used her sense of touch to identify what could be in the balloons. She was using good words to describe and compare the balloons. She worked out which one had toothpaste in because it was 'soft' and 'smooth'.	5 ROWAN Sophie Kidd. In Maths, we have been learning how to round numbers up to 1,000,000. Sophie has been working really hard on this and I was really impressed to see how focused she was. She was keen to answer questions on the carpet during the input and could explain exactly what was needed to solve the problem. Her work is presented neatly and she has tried hard to get as much done as possible. A fantastic effort. Well done Sophie!
2 CEDAR Ginny Wood. Cedar Class have written, edited and published their own setting descriptions this week and Ginny used her learning to describe a stormy sea using conjunctions, verbs and some incredible adjectives. Well done, Ginny!	5 WILLOW Ahmed Maricar for his absolutely fantastic explanation text about his very own robot! I have really enjoyed learning all about 'Bot Annie', who can teach me all about botany which I know is one of your interests. You have included many features including headings, sub-headings, bullet points, parentheses and interesting openers. I am so impressed with how you are challenging yourself. Well done!
2 HAWTHORN Austin Osei-Boateng. In our RE lessons, we have been learning about special books. We had a fabulous visitor, Suzanne, from the Church of the Good Shepherd, who told us all about the Bible and why it's special to her. Austin wrote a thoughtful thank you letter. Well done Austin!	6 HOLLY Theo Brockway for an amazing piece of work on Evolution and Inheritance in Science this week. You have shown your understanding through your written work, which is beautifully presented, and I love your new cross breed of dog - the Terriodor. This could be a popular new breed as it's affectionate but also loves to chase things. Fabulous work Theo - well done!
3 ELM Mimi Gammon for her exciting 'action' part of the story. She has used lots of movement in her story and lots of interesting adverbs. Well done Mimi!	6 LAUREL Emily Pugh as she has impressed me with her work in RE. The task was to write a letter to a friend explaining what the Holy Trinity means to them. Emily has clearly shown her understanding of the Holy Trinity being 'three in one'. Well done Emily, keep up the great work!

The Storm

Pitch black clouds watched over me in the vast sky and I felt scared. I could see the flashing bright lighting looking down at me! I could see the big black sky looming over me. I could hear the thunder and it made me terrified. I could hear the waves crashing against the rocks. I could hear the rain pinging on my head! The loud seagulls were panicking.

Mimi Gammon

The tunnel - Jack's story

Jack excitedly crawled through the damp black tunnel. When Jack reached the end he stepped out to a beautiful enchanted forest. Slowly the great sky got grayer and scarier. For a second he saw a tall, pointy crack hole. He tried to grab it but it just got higher and higher and vanished!

Jack could hear leaves and brown leaves crumbling beneath his feet. He started to run away. Suddenly he saw that wind fall black hat again. And this time it got higher and higher and flew the other way. And he realised it was a witch!

BANG! The witch quickly flew down on her broom magic broom stick. And landed right in front of Jack. Jack tried to run away but the witch had rapid hips. When ever he went was a trap.

Jack didn't see the last trap he accidentally stepped in it and immediately burst to stone! A few minutes later Rose came running into the forest and saw Jack turned to stone and then Rose stepped into the trap and Jack slowly started to wiggle. And then they ran back through the tunnel and ran back home together.

Austin Osei-Boateng

Dear Suzanne
 Thank you for sharing your spirit with us and what you do for living. I really enjoyed when you shared that song with us. I didn't hear any names as the bible now. I do I should not that there was books. I found out that the new testament and the old testament love from Austin.

and gazing at me. Pungent salt sprayed up at me! Green pungent seaweed yanked onto my face and it was really stinky. I clung onto the whales big blue tail. I could taste the seaweed as it sprayed onto my face. I tasted it and it tasted disgusting. When I was on the tail of the whale I swept my hand in the waves and it felt nice and warm.

Imogen Bulmer

Jack's story

Jack slowly crept out of the slimy, gloomy tunnel. He came out in a beautiful wood and the sun was shining brightly. Jack moved further and further into the wood and it got darker and spookier. He could feel branches gnawing at his and wings scratching viciously at his face. Jack was petrified.

In the distance Jack thought he saw a point of a witchy tail. He walked past it and heard spooky noise. He heard owl's hooting and the whistling of the wind. Jack felt excited and petrified. He was excited because he was on an adventure and petrified because lots of mysterious things were happening to him. CRASH! A wicked, ancient witch jumped out of a tree.

Jack looked where the crash was and saw a witch. He tried to creep away but unfortunately he stepped on a trap. SNAP! It sank! The wicked ancient witch quickly turned her eye on him. As soon as Jack saw the witch he turned and sped. So the witch flew after him. He ran to the clearing and suddenly stepped on one of the witch's traps. "Yes!" cried the witch as she called a wolf. She let Jack free and the wolf pounced quickly on Jack and stuck his paws into Jack's arm and the poison slowly

Jack crawled excitedly through the tunnel when he got out he spotted through the scary dark forest. He could hear strange mysterious sounds. The more he moves into the forest the more he gets scared but at the same time he is excited and happy. Branches scratched and scraped his face. Thomas said there was a snake hissing and more mysterious sounds. He felt the big breeze going to his body blowing him away. He felt like going back but he was lost. He wished to go back and he thought of Rose for a second. He panics because he does not know what to do.

Thump! Jack fell down clumsily because he is scared there is a snake! The snake has red evil eyes that stared at Jack. The snake is bright green. Hiss! The snake hissed viciously at Jack. Jack said please do not kill me! The snake hissed viciously at Jack then slithered away. Jack thought he was running away from the snake but Jack was running towards the snake. The snake hissed Jack.

Hiss! The snake hissed at Jack. Jack shouted help! The snake slithered to Jack. The snake bit him and that bite turned him into stone. He tried to run away but it was too late. He got turned into stone. Will he make it safe?

Sophie Kidd

One snowy morning, Rabbit woke up excitedly because Rabbit was going to the library today. He went down stairs to have his breakfast and after that Rabbit got his coat on, then opened the door and skipped down the street to the library. It was a snowy day so that's why Rabbit had his coat on and it took him quicker walk than usual because he didn't get distracted. When he got to the library, he went past the fiction bin and went into the non-fiction bin and got this book about wolves and read it down the street.

Rabbit screamed in terror but then the wolf said "I am a vegetarian" lie. Then they had a picnic and ate but then Wolf gobbled Rabbit up and after that wolf went to Lego Land then wolf saw the fastest ride ever. Then he got vomited out and fell on the floor and after the ride ~~Rabbit~~ said sorry and had the best party of there lives.

While Rabbit walking down the street something was creeping up on him but Rabbit didn't know. But it did feel like a menacing, blood thirsty, shreasing breeze was creeping up on him while he was reading his book down the street. Then at the end of the street is the forest, then Rabbit got into the middle of the forest! But can you imagine getting creeped up by a beast but as well as being in the middle of the forest Rabbit heard a horribling howl which creeped him out. Then Rabbit heard a growl and turned around and there was a wolves face right in front of him.

Can you support a local charity?

I'm fundraising for the Woking & Sam Beare Hospice by running the 2022 London Marathon on 2nd October.

This incredible charity is celebrating 25 years of helping local families in the Surrey area and needs your help!

87.2p in every £1 donated to Woking & Sam Beare Hospice is spent on delivering care for people with life-limiting illnesses and supporting carers and family members.

All of the charity's services are completely free of charge, so I am raising much needed funds to support this great cause.

Friends Panto

PANTOMIME - THURSDAY 8th DECEMBER at 7PM

Friends of Pyrford Primary School has again secured seats at great rates for this year's family panto, thanks to the New Victoria Theatre's special discount for PTAs. The pantomime will be Cinderella this year and stars Brian Conley.

There are two price bands - £20 for stall tickets and £10 for upper circle (both work out around half price compared to buying direct). Every ticket bought through us will contribute to our school fund and the pantomime raised over £2000 last year for the school. We have not been offered ice cream vouchers this year.

Please make your payment and complete the online form - Panto Booking Form

Tickets are allocated when all tickets have been sold. When oversubscribed, we will look at the date of payment to determine allocation of tickets, not the date of your form. Please ONLY submit the form when payment has been made to help us quickly match your form to your payment and to save us having to chase up payments.

If you have any problems or queries, please email PyrfordPanto@gmail.com.

On a separate note, the 2023 panto will be my last one at Pyrford Primary. Is anyone willing to take on the allocation of panto tickets next year? I will do a handover with you in 2023 so you will be ready for 2024. Emily Kidd

We are nearly sold out of stalls tickets now but have a small number of seats available in the upper circle

Dear PARENTS:- We need four parents per night to have the appropriate adult to child ratio in our Church Safeguarding policy. So, if you have not already volunteered this year, PLEASE LOOK and SEE if you might be free once this term, that would be WONDERFUL!

If free, you can email suzanne@wisleywithpyrford.org or fill in this slip and return it at Youth Club Jnr. Many thanks.
